

Please join our next Special Interest Day in Cley Village Hall on Tuesday 10th March, 2026, when acclaimed Arts Society lecturer Peter Medhurst will explore the theme of “Paintings Inspired by Music and Music Inspired by Paintings”.

It has long been recognised that the worlds of the visual and aural arts link with extraordinary power when one medium inspires the other. The three lectures, which span over 600 years of the arts, analyses and discusses a range of related works, bringing together the music of Martinu with the frescoes of Piero della Francesca; Botticelli's Birth of Venus with Respighi's Trittico botticelliano; Bocklin's Isle of the Dead with Rachmaninoff's symphonic poem and Poet Mondrian's Broadway Boogie Woogie with the piano playing of Albert Ammons.

Please aim to arrive between 10 and 10.30 am, as the first lecture will start at 10.30 am. We should finish by 3.30 pm. The cost of the day is £45 per person. This covers hall hire, speaker's fee and expenses, tea and coffee and a light lunch with sandwiches and fruit, accompanied by a glass of wine or soft drink.
